

Five simple limoncello cocktails

All are delicious as they are, or you can garnish with a slice of lemon, lime or orange, or a sprig of mint or thyme.

Spritz

60ml limoncello

90ml prosecco

30ml soda water

Fill a large wine glass with ice. Add the limoncello, top with the prosecco and soda water, and stir gently.

Sorrento mule

45ml limoncello

45ml gin

15ml lemon juice, freshly squeezed

150ml ginger beer

Fill a tall glass with ice. Add the first three ingredients, stir, then top with ginger beer and stir gently again.

Negroni d'Amalfi

30ml Campari

30ml red vermouth

30ml limoncello

Put a large ice cube (or a few regular ice cubes) in a rocks glass or short tumbler. Add the ingredients and stir.

Lemon drop

60ml limoncello

30ml vodka

15ml lemon juice, freshly squeezed

Put the ingredients in a cocktail shaker with ice. Shake vigorously, then strain into a martini glass.

Sgroppino

15ml vodka

15ml limoncello

Scoop of lemon sorbet

Prosecco, to top

Mix the vodka and limoncello in a mixing glass with ice, then strain into a coupe. Add the lemon sorbet and top up with prosecco.
